Our Acquisition of HEF Solutions

2019 was a prosperous year for MediQuant. During HIMSS19, we officially announced that HEF Solutions would become a part of the MediQuant family. Soon you'll see MediQuant email addresses for HEF Solutions staff as we integrate our infrastructure. You'll also be redirected from the HEF Solutions website to the appropriate page on the MediQuant site.

What else is changing?

HEF Solutions has been the market leader in EMR and EHR Data Migration Services for more than a decade. MediQuant and HEF Solutions are a natural fit. Together, we're now able to offer our healthcare industry clients a comprehensive suite of system transition services and proven active enterprise data archiving solutions.
